

Pre-school Activities

Parent/Child Pre-School T-Ball Monday/Wednesday

Ages 4 – 5
8 classes

This basic instructional program is for a parent/adult (18+ years of age) and child (boy or girl). Children, along with their parent, will learn the skills of throwing a ball, catching a ball, running the bases, proper batting techniques and the basics of the game through repeated drills. These fundamental skills are the first steps needed in the development of baseball/softball players. The main emphasis of this program is on having fun in a non-competitive atmosphere while allowing the child to play with their parent and interact with other children! This program runs for 45 minutes and will be held at Commons Park (555 - 61st Avenue NE). Participants will meet in the northwest corner of the park near the park shelter. Classes are limited to 18 parent/child pairs. Participants should bring their own gloves - - everything else is provided (softie t-balls will be used)! Fee is based on parent/child pair, and includes a t-shirt for the child. Min/max: 10/18.
